TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES! NEW REMEDIES!

DR. GIBBON'S DISPENSARY,
(Established in 1854.)
617 Kearney Street, near Commercial, San Francisco.

EXPOSURE OF QUACKERY.

For the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as gonorrhœa, gleet, stricture, syphilis in all its forms; seminal weakness, impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated legs, successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned to this State, after an absence of one year, during which time he has visited all the principal hospitals of Europe—among them those of Dublin, London and Paris. The following celebrated hospitals of London are among those visited by the Doctor: Guy's, High St. Borough; St. Bartholomew's, Smithfield; St. Luke's, Old street; St. Mary's, Camb Place, Pad.; Lock, Harrow road; University, Gower street; Westminster, Broad Sanctuary; Charring Cross, Agar street, Strand; London, Whitehapel road; Royal Free, Gray's Inn road; King's College, Portugal street.

DR. GIBBON has visited Drs. Acton of London; Parker of Birmingham, England, and Ricord of Paris, who are considered the best physicians and surgeons in the world, and whose authority is acknowledged to be the highest in the treatment of Sexual Diseases.

DR. GIBBON has obtained from them their new mode of treatment, which cannot be surpassed.

DR. GIBBON has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1, 1865.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid, amaciated and disfigured faces, and their broken constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians and friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible, life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them to DR. GIBBON, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended Doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strick inquiry, or may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Syphilis is Syphilis the world over; so is small pox, consumption and other diseases, to the contrary of what quacks may say.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Weakness, the consequence of sel-abuse.—This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures: sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunt intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by this new and scientific mode of treating this complaint, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give $100 to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured by either of the San Francisco quacks.

DR. GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to DR. GIBBON, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicine promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for ten dollars, sent in a registered leter, or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 617 Kearney street, near Commercial, San Francisco, Postoffice Box 352.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and prerenders who, with bogus sworn to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly papers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trade. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper-carriers, intelligence office, keepers, etc.—Look over the San Francisco City Directory and you will find their former occupation in it. Look at the Directory for 1862. The only way to avoid imposition is make inquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets, for, advertising physicians in eight cases of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting till you know what they are. DR. GIBBON does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. DR. GIBBON will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Prevention Better than Cure.

The newly invented Patent French Safe, a sure Prevention against diseases and pregnancy. Sent by mail—Price, $2.

AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF A CAT.

(A CHRISTMAS STORY FOR LITTLE FOLKS.)

BY J. F. MAGUIRE.

This horrid language cut my uncle to the soul: "Filthy Beast!" and applied to him. A blow, even a kick, he could possibly forgive, though he might not forget, but a "filthy beast"—never! Had Uncle Rothschild a sword, he would have slain the slanderer on his own hearth-rug; but cats, happily, don't wear or use swords, and therefore his master's life was spared. Such was the agony of mind these fearful words caused my uncle to suffer, that he gave vent to his lacerated feelings in a howl that seemed to rend his tortured breast. "Ha! there you are, you black depradator!" "There you are my charming butter licker," said the waiter in a tone of savage irony. "I'll teach you to be virtuous, my fine fellow." And the speaker seized the poker, while the mistress murmured: "Poor fellow, he's not to blame." At this, my uncle set up a howl, which I am glad mamma or I did not hear; it was so heart-rendering, I shall not attempt to describe what followed, and will only say that my uncle was lamed in the fray, but not before he had fastened his claws in the shin of the kind master who in vain endeavored to save him from the waiter's fury. Uncle could never tell how it occurred, what with his outraged feelings, even more than his fright, which was excessive. Uncle was captured, shoved ignominiously into a basket, and sent back to the Doctor with the Banker's compliments, who said he would not deprive the family of so valuable an animal. Though the Doctor did not exactly understand the message, he received back his "pretty Tom," as uncle had been called before he received his celebrated name from his late tyrant. Mamma, with a wonderful power of intuitive perception, for which she was more remarkable than any cat I've ever known, at once saw that something was wrong, to use a decidedly vulgar form of expression, she "smelt a rat." Uncle Rothschild shrunk from her keen, green eye, and sought the seclusion of the shingles (or tiles) evidently to avoid mamma's point d allusions and home questions. But uncle's reserve was unavailing, as mamma heard the entire story in the Doctor's office from the chief actor in the tragical scene. I was with my mamma harmlessly playing with my own tail, in pure absence of mind, and, indeed, having nothing better to do at the time, when uncle came down from the shingles, on which he had been moping for the best part of day. "So, sir," said mamma, in a tone, which young as I was, I much regretted to hear, "there is no further mystery about the cause of your business." Uncle was greatly agitated, but said not a word. "Butter licking is mean," said my mother. Still not a word from my uncle, who seemed to struggle with his feelings. "To be thrashed with a poker, and to be called a filthy beast, into the bargain, and deservedly too," said mamma, in a voice that was exasperating in the extreme. Uncle now gave full rein to his passion, and springing on dear mamma, he called her a nasty name, and struck her a violent blow on the nose with his right paw, at the same time setting up an awful howl. Mamma had a fierce tongue when she was thoroughly roused; and now she was roused, indeed; so she clung to poor uncle, who was weakened from his lameness, and even more so from the sufferings of a wounded spirit, and inflicted on him a merciless beating. much fur being sacrificed on both sides, but uncle exhibiting marks of the greatest punishment. When it was all over, I went off in violent hysterics. For a full month after uncle was not seen in the house; but from the moment he returned he ever treated mamma with the greatest and most respectful delicacy, avoiding the slightest occasion of dispute, and indeed rather shunning the society of his sister. He told me, in confidence, that he decidedly objected to strong-minded females; but I rather suspect Uncle Rothschild's objection was more of a physical than a moral nature, though I never said so—for uncle was the soul of tenderness to me. I may add, he was a confirmed bachelor, and upon me he lavished the full wealth of his naturally ardent affections. At this period of my life the attentions of the Doctor's children were a source of constant and terrible tribulation. Unfortunately for my peace of mind, nature had bestowed on me rare charms of person, added to which the care of a fond and accomplished parent, had imparted to my manner a winning fascination, that was only too fatally attractive. Master Alphrey, the Doctor's youngest hopeful, couldn't live without me. When he awoke in the morning, his first cry was for "his tat; his pussy tat;" and until I was given into his clutch there was no peace in the house. Torn from the soft fur of my fond mamma, I was consigned to the tender mercy of the young barbarian; and ah! I shudder as I recall the treatment I suffered at his ruthless hands. Possibly the little savage loved me after his own fashion; but what between strangulation and suffocation, my life was one prolonged torment. Did I attempt to slip from him, I was caught by the throat by the young demon's sturdy fist; then I was rubbed against the hair—that is from tail to head—and poked in the eye, and pulled by the legs, and my growing whiskers, of which mamma, with a parent's pardonable vanity, was no little proud, were made the subject of the most painful experiments. Sometimes I was smothered in doll's clothes, and dandled like a baby; then my face was roughly washed with a wet towel, and lest, "Alfy's darlin' titten," was not in a state of perfect cleanliness I was ducked in the first slops at hand. Blinded, panting for breath, frenzied with fright, with stinging soap-suds in my eyes, I rushed to my mamma, and was licked into tranquility by my loving and sorrowing parent; but scarcely had my spirits recovered their tone, than a message from the nursury was dispatched to the kitchen, ordering "Master Alphrey's kitten," to be sent up to him at once. I cannot say that my heart sunk into my boots, for I never wore that article of dress; but this I do say—that had not the idea of enlistment or suicide been ridiculous in my case, I should have seriously entertained the possibility of one or other of these desperate alternatives. "Come little pussy, you must go to the nursery," really would old Martin say, as he handed me over to the messenger, whose return was quickened by a mad tug at the bell, and a yell from my sweet darling up stairs: "Oh, Dane! Dane! my own titten." "Dive her to me, Dane," cried master Alphrey. "No, Jane, give the darling to me," implored master Henry." "Jane, Jane, let me have her, I want to dress her like mamma," besought Miss Fannie.

"No, Jane, give her to me, and I'll wash her pretty face, and comb her lovely hair, and teach her to dance," urged Miss Jannette. And so they all rushed at me like a troop of red Indians, and I was pulled here, and pulled there, until I do declare it was a miracle that a piece of me was left in the hands of each of the youthful monsters. How I survived this kind of treatment I cannot tell. I suppose I must have lost at least half a dozen of my complement of nine levies in this horrid martyrdom. A day of rest came at last, Jane gave notice and left, and a nice girl named Martha came in her place. Martha took pity on my helpless state, and gradually made the children conscious of the fact that I had feeling, that choking was not pleasant—that I did not admire dips in soap suds—that my face did not require to be washed six times a day, and that it was as easy to take me up bodily as to pull me into one's lap by the tail. Good Martha's constant interference in my behalf mitigated the severity of my treatment, and I became certainly and eventually somewhat accustomed to the ways of the children; but for a long time I preferred the companionship of my gentle Uncle Rothschild, or the instructive society of my fond mamma. Thus I grew to be a remarkably handsome and attractive cat, whose natural playfulness of disposition had been chastened by trials of no ordinary kind. It is only fair to my dear mamma to add that I was neither vain or conceited, and that by an honest sense of my now fully developed talent for mousing and rat killing. I sought to earn the approbation of my master and mistress, and the approval of my own conscience. Now came a period of sad trial for us poor cats. Felly, the cook, took it into her head "to change her condition," "settle in life." She had arrived at the ripe age of five-and-forty, but being tired of a single life, she made up her mind to get married. "Child," said my mother to me one day, "we must be careful, a time of trouble is approaching." Mamma's words were very strange, but they were attended with the most expressive solemnity of manner. "What do you mean mamma? said I. "My dear, Nelly wants to be married," replied my mother with a volume of meaning in her words. "Well, mamma, and why shouldn't she if she wishes? But what has Nelly's getting married to do with us?" "Much," said my mother. "I don't see it mamma," I playfully replied. I wish her every happiness." "Very good of you" muttered mamma: "but wait a bit, Miss Benevolence, and perhaps you will soon change your tune." "Pray explain; I am no longer a kitten, whatever it is, tell me the worst." "Well" said my mother in a deep whisper, "Nelly is going to have a lover, and when the cook has a lover, the cat is sure to catch it." This, as Uncle Rothschild used to say, was all Greek to me, Alas! it was soon plain enough. Up to this moment mamma had borne the most exemplary reputation for probity and discretion; and I, though young and giddy, and at times frivolous, had never done anything to bring a blush to the cheek of the author of my being, my fond but austere mamma. Even Uncle Rothschild was a changed cat, and seemed to have conceived a rooted aversion to a pat of butter. Indeed the Doctor had but to present a butter-plate to the poor fellow to make him fly from the room in terror, so vivid was the recollection of the poker that maimed him, so keen was the remembrance of the horrid insult to his feelings. More sternly virtuous cats did not exist than we three; and this was the Doctor's boast and belief, until Nelly had a lover. This lover was an enormous Highlander whose appearance was very startling to me and who mamma by no means impressed me in his favor. Under the pretence of liking cats, he indulged in liberties that to a delicate mind was literally odious. These he persevered in doing, pinching my ears, rubbing up my fur, and pulling me into his horrid lap by the tail, a mode of being raised which is not only embarrassing, but very offensive, especially to a female. Mamma, an admirable judge, thought he was a fine man, and Uncle Rothschild thought he was a strapping fellow. But I never warmed to the creature, though he lost no opportunity in his rough way, of trying to conciliate me. "My child," said mamma, when the Highlander was the subject of our conversation, "this love affair of Nellie's will be a source of much anxiety to us." My mother's words came quickly true. From the first hour that Nellie's lover made his appearance in the kitchen, which he did with remarkable regularity, the results were apparent. A decided increase in grocery bills, and a feeling of strange hostility to the cats of the house. The reader, I venture to hope, requires no vindication of mamma's character at my hands—paws. There was a noble simplicity and a lofty self-denial conspicous in mamma that I have not observed in any other cat of either sex. Such was mamma's self-possession, her complete control over her feelings, that I have seen her withstand temptations that neither I nor poor Uncle Rothschild could have resisted. A pet canary given by little Alice to her playmate Harry, one day hopped on the rug within a yard of mamma's nose, but though my honored parent indulged in an involuntary chatter—for after all cats will be cats—she at once recollected the pretty giver and deliberately closed her eyes on the unconscious tempter. I could not have done this. I should, it is likely, have repented the act, but that bird would have promptly found a place in my stomach, if I was to be hung for it the next minute. Then, as to Uncle Rothschild, whatever might have been the weakness of his erring youth, he had by this time become a philosopher, and of anything beyond a casual dip in the dripping pan or an unauthorized cleaning of a dinner-plate could not be justly accused. After a frugal breakfast, eaten with much solemnity and deliberation, he usually betook himself to the shingles, which commanded an extensive view, most conducive to tranquility of soul. Such was Uncle Rothschild. As for myself, it is sufficient to say I scorned shabbiness, and I must remark that I had become such a favorite with my good master the Doctor, and with the entire family, with the single exception of the mistress, that I was too well fed to condescend to steal. Indeed my mamma often warned me against the horrors of dyspepsia, which she mainly attributed to too much food, and to undue tendency to cream for which latter I certainly had the family weakness. From what I have thus said, the reader will understand how unfounded were the vile accusations of which, for a time, we were made the victims.

EXQUISITE.—When a Baltimore lady is kissed, she says she feels as though she was taking chloroform, and remains insensible as long as the operasion lasts.

THOUGHTS FROM THOREAU.

How often, when we have been nearest each other bodily, we really have been fartherest off! Our tongues were the withy foils with which we fenced each other off.

How shall we earn our bread, is a grave question, yet it is a sweet and inviting question. Let us not be content to get our bread in some gross, careless and hasty manner.

Some men go a-hunting, some a-fishing, some a-gaming and some to war; but none have so pleasant a time as they who in earnest seek to earn their bread. Not only the rainbow and sunset, but to be fed and clothed, sheltered and warmed aright, are equally beautiful and inspiring.

I know many men, who in common thing are not to be deceived; who trust no moonshine; who count their money correctly, and know how to invest it; who are said to be prudent and knowing—who yet will stand at a desk the greater part of their lives, as cashiers of banks, and glimmer and rust and finally go out there.

Pursue, keep up with, circle round and round your life, as a dog does his master's chaise. It is what you love. Know your own bone; gnaw at it, bury it, unearth it, gnaw at it still. Be not be too moral. You may cheat yourself out of much life so. Aim above morality. Be not simply good; be good for something.

Man is continually saying to woman: Why will you not be more wise? Woman is continually saying to man: Why will you not be more loving? It is not their wills to be wise or loving; but unless each be both wise and loving, there can be neither wisdom or love.

Even the tenderest plants force their way through the hardest earth, and the crevices of rocks; but a man no material power can resist. What a wedge, what a beetle, what a catapultis is an earnest man! What power can resist him!

Let nothing come between you and the light. Respect men as brothers only. When you travel to the celestial city, carry no letter of introduction. When you knock, ask to see God—none of the servants.

What wealth is it to have such friends that we cannot think of them without elevation!

And we cannot think of them any time, anywhere, and it cost but the lofty disposition.

Love is a severe critic. Hate can pardon more than love. They who aspire to love worthily, subject themselves to an ordeal far more rigid than any other. It is astonishing as well as sad, how many trivial affairs even the wisest man thinks he must attend to in a day; how singular an affair he thinks he must omit.

The present hour is always wealthiest when it is poorer than the future ones, as that is the pleasantest site which affords the pleasantest prospects.

We make conquests only of husks and shells for the most part—at least apparently—but sometimes these are cinnamon and spices.

Our sadness is not sad, but our cheap joys.

Let us be sad about all we see and are, for so we demand and pray for better.

Nothing makes the earth seem so spacious as to have friends at a distance; they make the latitudes and the longitudes.

It is strange that men will talk of miracles, revelation, inspiration and the like, as things past, while love yet remains.

Now at night I go on the hill to see the sun set, as one would go home at evening.

Men cannot conceive a state of things so fair that it cannot be realized.

I believe even the best things are not equal to their fame.

Let our meanness be our footstool, not our cushion.

The heavens are as deep as our aspirations are high.

ENGLISH RED TAPE.—The undergraduates of the English university of Oxford have lately quarreled with their bread and butter—or, more correctly, with those who provide these and other articles of food in the colleges. A student writes to an English journal some account of his sufferings, and his search for a responsible head upon which to lay the blame, from which we get some idea of the very perfection of "red tape" proceedings:

Yesterday evening the dinner provided for the mess to which I belong was, as usual, perfectly cold. We accordingly sent for the manciple; and after complaining to him, requested him also to observe the hot-water dish on which the meat is placed was not only not properly heated, but as cold as the meat upon it.

"Oh! sir," replied the official, "I have nothing to do with that. That is the business of the general butler."

He was accordingly sent for.

"Have you the charge of heating these dishes?"

"No, sir; the other butler does that. I've got to look after the spoons and forks."

"Send the other butler then."

Presently "the other butler" arrives and the following dialogue ensues:

"You have to see that this dish is properly heated?"

"Yes, sir."

"Then why is it as cold as ice to-night?"

"But I haven't the charge of heating the water, sir."

We were getting tired of sending for people, now; but determined to get to the bottom of the matter, if possible, we had up the cook's boy, who, as butler No. 2 said had to heat the water.

We expostulated with the boy, and received some excuse about "a hole in the boiler" and "not being able to get it mended on Sunday." "Anyhow," said we, "if there isn't more water in the thing than there is to-day, it will never keep anything hot." "Oh, sir," rejoined the boy, "I have nothing to do with putting the water in, I've only to heat it before it is put in."

That is perfect, and cannot be beaten anywhere out of England.

THE GARDEN SPOT OF AMERICA.—I heard the love of home oddly illustrated in Oregon one night in a country bar-room. Some well-dressed men, in a state of strong drink, were boasting of their respective places of nativity.

"I," said one, "was born in Mississippi, where the sun ever sines and the magnolias bloom all the happy year round."

"And I," said another, "was born in Kentucky—Kentucky, the home of impassioned oratory, the home of Clay, the State of splendid women and gallant men."

"And I," said another, "was born in Virginia, the home of Washington, the birthplace of statesmen, the State of chivalric deeds and of hospitality."

"And I," said a yellow haired and sallow faced man, who was not of this party at all, and who had been quietly smoking a short, black pipe by the fire during their magnificent conversation—"and I was born in the garden spot of America."

"Where is that?" they said.

"Skeoughegan, Maine!" he replied; "kin I sell you a razor strop?"

PUNCH has discovered that the temperature of Fenianism is "98 in the shade."

THE PRINTER AND TYPES.

Perhaps there is no department of enterprise whose details are less understood by intelligent people than the "art preservative"—the achievement of the types.

Every day their lives long, they are accustomed to read the newspapers, to find fault with its statements, its arguments, its looks, to plume themselves upon the discovery of some roguish and acrobatic type that gets into a frolic and stands upon its head, or some word with a wasteletter in two in it; but of the process by which the newspaper is made, of the myriads of motions necessary to its composition, they know little and think less.

They imagine they discourse of a wonder, indeed, when they speak of the fair, white carpet, woven for thought to walk on, from the rags that fluttered on the back of a beggar yesterday.

But there is to us something more wonderful still. When we look at the hundred and fifty-two little boxes, something shaded with inky fingers, that compose a printer's "case," noiseless, except the click of the types, as one by one they take their place in the growing line—we think we have found the marvel of the art.

Strewn in those little boxes are thin parallelograms of metal, every one good for something that goes to make up written language; the visible footprints of thought upon carpets of rags.

We think how many fragments of fancy there are in those boxes; how many atoms of poetry and eloquence the printer can make here and there, if he only has a little chart to work by; how many facts in small handsful, how much truth in chaos!

Now he picks up the scattered elements until he has in his hand a stanza of Gray's elegy, or a morsel upon a Grimes "all buttoned up before." Now he sets up a "Puppy Missing," and now "Paradise Lost." He arrays a bride in "small caps," and a sonnet in "Nonpareil." He announces that the languishing "live," in one sentence, transposes the word and deplores the days are "evil" in the next.

A poor jest ticks its way into the printer's hand, like a little clock just running down, and a strain of eloquence marches into lines. We fancy we can tell the difference by the click of the types, but perhaps not.

The types that told of a wedding yesterday, announces a burial to-morrow—perhaps in the self-same letters.

They are the element to make words of. Those types are a world with something in it, as beautiful as spring, and as rich as summer, and as grand as autumn; flowers that frost cannot wither, but fruit that shall ripen for all time.

HOME RULES.—1. From your children's earliest infancy, inculcate the necessity of instant obedience.

2. Unite firmness with gentleness. Let your children always understand that you mean exactly what you say.

3. Never promise anything unless you are sure you can give them what you promise.

4. If you tell a child to do anything, show him how to do it, and see that it is done.

5. Always punish your children for willfully disobeying you, but never punish in anger.

6. Never let them perceive that they can vex you or make you lose your self-command.

7. If they give way to petulance or temper, wait till they are calm, and then gently reason with them on the impropriety of their conduct.

8. Remember that a little present punishment, when the occasion arises, is much better than the threatening of a greater punishment should the fault be renewed.

9. Never give your children anything because they cry for it.

10. On no account allow them to do at one time what you would have at another time, under the same circumstances, forbidden.

11. Teach them that the only sure and easy way to appear good is to be good.

12. Accustom them to make their little recitals the perfect truth.

13. Never allow tale bearing.

14. Teach them that self-denial, not self-indulgence, is the appointed and sure method of securing happiness.

A WESTERN OBITUARY.—J. Bangs, we are sorry to state, has deceased. He departed this life last Monday. Jem was generally considered a good feller. He went forth without a struggle, and such is life. To-day we are as pepper grass—mighty smart—to-morrow we be cut down like a cowcomber of the ground. Jem kep a nice store which his wife now wields. His verchews was numerous to behold. Many is the things we bot at his grocery, and we are happy to state to the admiring world that he never cheated, specially in the wait of mackeral, which was nice, and smelled sweet. And his surviving wife was the same way. We never newed him to put sand in his shugger, nor he had a big sand bar in front of his house nor water his liquors, though the Ohio river run past his store. Pease to his remains. He leaves one wife, 7 children, 1 cow, a grocery store and other quadrupeds, to mourn his loss—but in the langwidge of the poit; his loss was their eternal gane.

AN AMERICAN LINGUIST.—When the Hon. Caleb Cushing was Attorney-General of the United States, he was said to be the only member of the Cabinet able to converse in any language beside his own. At a diplomatic dinner in Washington, given by Mr. Bodisco, the Russian Minister, he conversed in French with Mr. Stiges, the French Ambassador; in Spanish with Don Calderon; in Dutch with Baron Von Gerolt; in Portugese with De Figanere; and in the purest Italian with the representative of the two Sicilies. The distinguished party were surprised and charmed, and some thought the Yankee polyglot could have added Chinese, had a representative of the Celestials been present.

MODERN BEATITUDES.—Blessed is he who does not make a cent, for he has no income tax to pay.

Blessed is the man who has no brains, but brass in abundance, for he shall be the ladies' favorite.—Selah!

Blessed is the man who giveth many and costly presents to the ladies, for great shall be his reward—in a horn.

Blessed is the man that is deaf, for he cannot hear what is said behind his back.

Blessed is the man who is always flat broke, for no man saith unto him, lend me five dollars.

Blessed are the orphans, for they have no mamma to spank 'em.

THE following is the conclusion of an epitaph on a tomb-stone in East Tennessee:

"She lived a life of virtue and died of the cholera morbus, caused by eating green fruit, at the early age of 22 years, 3 months and 21 days. Reader, go thou and do likewise."

"WHAT a fool," said Patty Prim, when she heard of the capture of Jeff. Davis; "of course all the men would run after him in women's clothes, and his sex was sure to be discovered."

DUTCH FLAT ENQUIRER.

SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 17, 1866

Now, by St. Paul, the work goes bravely on,
The Stars and Stripes are up for Liberty,
Flag of the Nation--Talisman of the Free,
Curs'd be the hand that dares to pull thee down.

PERSONAL.—E. B. Boust, Editor of this paper, has gone below this week on business, and while we bespeak for him the kind consideration of all with whom he may come in contact, we especially entreat in his behalf, the tender mercies of the police force of the Bay City.

ON Sunday evening last a large and most respectable audience assembled at the Union Church at this place to hear our ministers express their opinions as to the affairs of the country at the present time, and right nobly did they acquit themselves of the duties they had assumed. They took the position that they were right in entertaining the views which they were about to enunciate as truths, and being right they were justified in preaching the same in and out of the pulpit; that the people looked to them for fearless and independent expression upon all matters pertaining to the condition of man, and "by the help of God" they intended to discharge those duties. Notwithstanding the effort made by a few to deter the people from attending, the Church was well filled, and the remarks made by both gentlemen were well received. The time has now, indeed, arrived, when citizens should take sides and maintain what is destined to place our Government in the front rank of the nations of the world. Old and senseless prejudices have to be done away with, and it is mainly through the influence of the pulpit and the press that this can be accomplished; and our people are willing that they take the initiative here, and right industriously have we commenced, the sore-heads and discontents to the contrary, notwithstanding.

THE PRESS OF NEVADA.—The Union journals of Nevada, says the Enterprise, which have taken a decided stand with the majority of Congress and against the President are the Enterprise, Humboldt Register, Carson Appeal, Dayton Sentinel, Eastern Slope, and the lone News. Only one—the Reese River Reveille—has taken a decided stand for the President and against Congress, and if our Chief Magistrate goes over—body and soul—to the Copperheads we shall expect the Reveille to fight it out on that line. The Gold Hill News is on the fence.

The Gold Hill News is waiting for a bid. It has, since Hawkins left, been one of the most wishy-washy concerns on the coast. Lynch's Unionism was never deeper than his almighty love of the dollar, and could heretofore, as now, be bought for a two-and-a-half piece. He played himself completely out in this county, and had it not been for other's brains, upon which he has been a pensioner, he would have gone to the dogs long ago. Mrs. Lynch's husband cannot be depended upon. He is too contemptible for further comment.

MATTERS AT COLFAX.—A correspondent of the Enquirer furnishes the following particulars concerning matters in that locality: Much excitement has prevailed here the past week in consequence of some rich quartz strikes. Every body has a severe attack of quartz on the brain. The Rising Sun, is considered by practical miners and competent judges, a first-class claim. Judge Neff, whose experience by the way, in quartz mining is by no means limited, is a heavy stockholder in this claim. The heavy trestle-work on the Railroad just east of this place and near Camp 2, will be completed in a short time. The denizens of this place were thrown into an excitement that approximated fever heat, by some teamsters reporting robbers on the Grass Valley road and in the immediate vicinity of town. A crowd was mustered and proceeded to the "front," when it was ascertained that the teamstere had taken their fright from an inoffensive Indian, who was simply engaged in catching grasshoppers near the roadside.

THE QUESTION SETTLED.—At a meeting of the Trustees of the Union Church of this place, held on the 13th inst., the following resolution was unanimously passed and ordered printed in the ENQUIRER:

Resolved, That the Union Church of Dutch Flat, shall at no time be occupied, except by the consent of a majority of the committee appointed to rent or let the same; and in case of the non-agreement of said committee, or a portion of the same who may be present, as to the occupation of the Church, the whole matter shall be submitted for consideration and final action to the Board of Trustees, a meeting of which shall be called for that purpose.

GOOD TEMPLARS.—We learn from a friend that a Good Templar Lodge was recently organized at You Bet, under very flattering auspices, having sixty-one charter members. Pretty good—You Bet. The following are the names of the officers elected by the association: Arthur Keeler, W. C. T.; Mrs. Maria Sutliff, W. V. T.; Geo. Dunton, W. S.; Miss F. Hobbs, W. F. S.; Robt. West, W. T.; Wm. Cuvillie, W. M.; Miss Mollie Dunster, I. G.; James Dixon, O. G.

CONCERT.—A concert, consisting of vocal and instrumental music, will be given at the Union Church—for the benefit of the same—on Thursday evening next, the 22d inst. Our town boasts some splendid musical talent, and we bespeak a full house. A fine programme will be presented—most of the music being new. Price of admission, fifty cents. Tickets to be had at the Postoffice and at the banking houses of Mr. Moore and W. & P. Nichols.

THE Mites had another of their "sociable reunions" (anonymous) at the Golden Eagle Hall on Tuesday evening last. Everything moved along harmoniously, as usual, and, of course, the result was a huge time. The net proceeds of the evening's entertainment amounted to $20. The Society meets again on next Tuesday evening at the same place. Come on, McDough, etc.

THE Meadow Lake Restaurant, on the corner of Main and Sacramento streets, kept by Phelep Heusner, serves meals at all hours, and in the best possible shape. The most of the fat men in town board there.

MINISTERS AND POLITICIANS.

We had the pleasure of attending Divine service at the Union Church, on Sunday evening. The house was crowded, notwithstanding the efforts of one or two ante-diluvians to prevent it. The subject was Re-construction, and I honor the time and the place when I say that it was worthy of such a theme. The two officiating clergymen seemed to speak as the ancient Christians sung "with the spirit and with the understanding also." Their enunciation of the Gospel of "Truth" and "Righteousness" was practical, vigorous and clear, in striking contrast with the "stale flat and unprofitable" trash by which the first day of the week—not the Sabbath—is usually desecrated. The audience, too, exhibited a spirit which would have pleased the great Apostle to the Gentilies, who prayed that his hearers or disciples might never be conservative. "I would that you were either cold or hot." The audience was not conservative, neither was it "cold." It was "hot." And when the clergymen "called" to preach scattered the glorious pearls of truth, justice, humanity, common sense and loyalty before the audience, they were greeted with applause—the same in principle as that which probably greeted the ears of Peter on the day of Pentacost. I am sure there could have been no "swine" present by whom such pearls could be despised and trampled in the mire of treason and prejudice!

But my principal object in this communication, is to call attention to a comparison made by the second speaker between ministers and politicians—a comparison, of course, very much to the disadvantage of the latter, and on the whole I think unjust. I pass by the fact that the meeting itself was called to sustain the views and purposes of the Congress of the United States, a body composed almost exclusively of politicians. As a greater responsibility rests on the present Congress than any legislative body that ever assembled, so it feels that responsibility more, not even excepting the Continental Congress, or the Long Parliament of England. And no body of clergymen ever assembled that could compare with it for ability, or be more devoted to truth, justice, humanity and civilization. These Congressional "politicians" lead; the ministers will do well if they follow. Go back to the Revolutionary period. Who were the leaders and moral heroes in that great contest? The politicians. The Bishop or Superintendent of the Methodist Church at that time was a noisy tory. The Episcopal Church of Virginia and the South was notoriously disloyal, and outside of Massachusetts and New England, not one minister in five opened his mouth for the cause. Yea, verily, to the politicians of the Revolution we owe our independence: to Washington, Franklin, Jefferson, Payne and Adams—yet of these men, Jefferson, Franklin and Payne were notorious infidels. Adams believed that Jesus was a man, and Washington never had any religious convictions, or if he had, he made sorry work carrying them into practice, for he was the most profane man of his time, and in his domestic relations was unfaithful to a faithful wife. Coming down to the early beginning of the contest against the most detestable institution that ever disgraced God's footstool—human slavery. Where were the Doctors of Divinity, the Presidents of Theological Seminaries and Colleges, when the politicians—Phillips, Garrison and the grand old Giddings, as sublimely as Daniel of old, walked into the lion's den of slavery and bearded the monster there! Chaming and Parker, I have not forgotten thee, O men of God! You were "faithful among the faithfuless found," and were "cut" and "snubbed" by your "holier" brothers in consequence. Pass with me over the sea: Who were the men that assembled at Runnymede and extorted from King and Priest the first great charter of English liberties? Politicians. Who was it that proclaimed religious toleration and freedom to worship God in France, while the ministers of both quarreling sects protested against it? It was that subtle trickery, and I must say dishonest politician—Henry IV. While the politicians were accomplishing these "good works," the Presbyterian clergy of Scotland were fastening upon the people of that country an intellectual despotism which has no parallel in the history of the human mind; and another Presbyterian clergyman was sitting in his house and chuckling as he heard the flames—kindled by himself—as they gathered around the limbs and body of the unhappy Servetus. Who is so ignorant that he does not know that while the principal clergy of England are remarkably sound upon the very important questions of infant baptism and tithes, in all moral and political reforms, are far in the rear of such politicians as Cobden and Bright? Ministers are never leaders in moral, social or political reforms. It is the testimony of impartial history that such is and has been the fact in all countries and in all ages. And hence I think it was unjust for the second speaker on Sunday night to say, or intimate, that mimsters are safer men to lead and advise than politicians. Politicians are bad enough, God knows. Each one has cause to humble himself in the dust and exclaim in the language of the ancient Publican: "Lord be merciful to me a sinner." But it must be left to the ministers to put on white neck-ties and airs and long faces, and to snivel and roll up their eyes and say, in the language of the ancient Pharisee: "Lord, I thank thee that I am better than other men."

BIBLE READER.

SIX hundred "Johns" passed through this place yesterday bound for the C. P. R. works somewhere above. They marched double-file, and we doubt not most of our citizens thought they were flanked by bushwhackers, or—judging from the noise they made passing our office—wild geese. As the fine weather approaches the Railroad Company are adding largely to their force.

NATIONAL HOTEL.—J. S. Watson, the prince of landlords, has taken charge of the eating department of this first-class hotel, and is prepared to furnish meals at all hours on the shortest notice. He "knows how to keep hotel," and caters to the wants of the hungry in a manner unsurpassed. Don't take our word for it, but give him a call.

LETTER FROM THE CAPITAL.

FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

SACRAMENTO, March 14, 1866.

EDITOR ENQUIRER:—I am not in the humor of writing, for I feel sad. I have just read in this evening's Bee of to-day, that Samuel H. Parker, the head of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, dropped dead at the Lick House to-day. I scarcely know what to write about.

The Bill defining the boundary lines between Sacramento, El Dorado and Placer has passed. I don't think that Placer has suffered any material injury by its passage.

What hurts the members of both Houses is this: Attorney-General McCollough instructed Controller Oulton, that after ninety days he could only draw his warrant for $5 per diem, excepting in the case of hold-over members of the Senate. The Assembly accordingly got mulish, and resolved not to take the $5 per diem.

I think I mentioned in a former letter that Horace Hawes' Registry Bill had passed both Houses, and the Governor has had it in his hands for ten days. His Private Secretary, Mr. Brown (not "John," but William,) will probably bring it into the Senate to-morrow with the Governor's approval or his veto.

They have, that is, We, Us & Co., (newspaper men) look after our own interests. I heard a report of the Committee on Claims, of which Bill Hunt, of Sacramento, is Chairman, in which the Dutch Flat ENQUIRER was mentioned—whether it was for subscriptions or relief, "deponent saith not."

Brother Benton, Senator from this county—"John Eliot"—who in conjunction with Judge Curry, assisted in the marrage of Judge F. French, of Folsom, introduced a bill in the Senate, prohibiting the sale of liquors on Sundays or election days, unless by apothecaries. Brother Benton is a good man (of his sort.) He said that he had petitions from the leading temperance men of the State, who were in favor of the bill; and furthermore, he thought the passage of the bill would break up the Democratic party.

Mr. Hardy, of Calaveras, one of the most solid men of the Senate, who pays a Federal Income tax on a million and a half, in reply to Parson Benton's speech, said that he was a citizen of Massachusetts when the "striped pig" was around; and besides, if Brother Benton's bill became a law, there would be apothecary shops on every corner, and several drug stores between corners on Sundays and election days.

Lovett, of Santa Cruz and Monterey, came after Benton witn a sharp strick, declaring that he was a Dashaway. Benton ignored the Dashaway arrangement, when Lovett said that he was a Good Templar. The Senator from Sacramento "subdued," and the bill did not pass.

The session closes by the Constitutional limit, in a few weeks, on the 4th of April, and in a private conference with Gov. Low, who holds his third and last levee to-morrow night, he will let h— freeze over before he will call an extra session. The Governor is in a bad humor over the Senatorial election, but it is his own fault; he had the cards in his hands, but he did not play the game like "one of the Watson family," but in the meantime he signed the bill changing the name of Samuel Snapper to "Samuel Douglas Bond."

SIMON SNAPPER.

RADICAL MALICE.—The Radical sheets of this State, in their treatment of the President, appear to make up in infernal malice what they lack in common sense, and vie with each other as to who can be guilty of using the most disgraceful language in regard to the head of the Nation. Some denounce him as a traitor, some as a drunkard, some as a blackguard; but the scoundrel who writes for the Dutch Flat ENQUIRER bears off the palm of partisan villany. This full-fledged rascal intimates that President Johnson was privy to the assassination of Lincoln. When partisan malice reaches such a height as this, and such villains as he who writes for the Dutch Flat ENQUIRER are allowed by the public to escape unwhipped, the true patriot may well entertain the most serious apprehensions for the future of the Nation. The Sacramento Union and Stockton Independent have got into good company, truly!—S. F. Call, 7th instant.

We have seen various comments upon the article we wrote upon the President's Veto by the Copperheads and weak-kneed Union press of this State, but for blackguardism, low-flung abuse, the sleuth-hound who does up the disgusting work for that two-faced sheet, the San Francisco Morning Call, caps anything we have yet seen outside of such sheets as "Our Mazeppa," "Sunday Varieties," etc. We could expect but little else, however, from the source whence the article in question emanated; when a man loses all solicitude for the welfare of humanity, Christianity and the prosperity of his country to such an extent as to desire to bolster up those who have proven themselves recreant to oft repeated and sacredly uttered promises he is indeed and the only surprise to our mind is, that a community having the reputation that San Francisco enjoys, should tolerate the maudlin vaporings of the puppy who writes for the treasonable sheet in question. We do not wonder at the malicious venom emitted by this serpent, but we do wonder at the tame submission of the people in allowing such "scoundrels" to walk the streets. The puppy—for it would be slander to call him a man—who wrote the article alluded to, should be lashed out of decent society, and compelled to herd with burglars, thieves and cut-throats. We ask pardon of the decent portion of the people for noticing this blackguard, and would advise the unwary to keep their hands upon their pocket-books when he is about. Society is coming to a pretty pass, indeed, when those who are interested in the welfare of the country are taken to task by traitors and thieves. If we are not mistaken in the man who wrote the articles in question, he was compelled to make a hasty retreat from Tuolomne county about twelves years ago, for his penchant for horses and mules belonging to honest men. But whether we are mistaken or not in this particular, if the writer supposes we are to be deterred from expressing our convictions of right, on account of such unwarrantable, ungentlemanly and personal attacks, he must be either a fool or a knave, and we suspect the latter. We are sorry we cannot minister to a morbid appetite by properly abusing this lying wretch, but we cannot help it.

A FRIEND writes us from Last Chance, that the Doctors pronounce it distressingly healthy in that locality; times unusually lively; the mines are improving; more claims being worked, and with better results, than at any other time for many years.

HEARTFELT GRATITUDE.

EDITOR ENQUIRER:—It has just occurred to me that your paper is issued to-morrow morning, and I sit down to try to acknowledge our heartfelt gratitude to the citizens of Dutch Flat for our happy deliverance from the flames that were so rapidly enveloping the roof of our dwelling but an hour since. It is due, under Providence only to the alacrity, coolness and efficiency of the citizens that we were not entirely burnt out and left destitute of everything. I cannot forbear adding that although a large part of our things were removed from the house, such was the care and presence of mind with which it was done that nothing was destroyed or even injured; and I am the more grateful that, although not at home and unaware of any danger till it was past, my presence could have added nothing to the success of their generous exertions. Our thanks are also due to those who kindly replaced the articles removed from the house. In return for all this kindness thus shown us in the hour of peril by the people of the place, I desire, as the least I can do, in behalf of both Mrs. Johnson and myself, to pledge our most earnest devotion to the best interests, temporal and spiritual, of the kind people among whom we live.

AUDITOR'S REPORT, PLACER COUNTY, FOR THE YEAR 1865.

TO THE HONORABLE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF PLACER COUNTY:

GENTLEMEN:—I herewith present for your consideration my Annual Report as Auditor of Placer county, of the financial transactions of said county for the year ending December 31st, 1865.

All of which is most respectfully submitted.

WALTER S. LYON, Auditor.

The Voice of the Press,

The editorials are of the ablest character; the news department is presided over by the best talent of the country, and the miscellaneous matter is evidently selected by editors who are adepts in the business. In short, it is a tremendous newspaper, and what we admire quite as much, a very handsome one.—TRINITY JOURNAL.

Many of the leading articles in the AMERICAN FLAG when carefully perused, cannot fail to make the lover of this country tremble. They are unmistakably a plain chess-board of the future, and will serve as a beacon light on the political paths of the nation. A large number of these articles are worthy of republication in book form.—LOS ANGELES NEWS.

THE FLAG is to be trusted as a true Union paper without deceit, which no motive of interest can turn from its course; and which cannot be swayed by favor or intimidated by threat. It is a first-class journal and ought to receive the hearty support of the true Union men of San Francisco and the interior. STOCKTON INDEPENDENT.

We have received the AMERICAN FLAG, published at San Francisco, California. It is printed on a double sheet larger than the New York Tribune, and is by far the ablest and best newspaper in the Golden State.—LITCHFIELD (CT.) ENQUIRER.

THE AMERICAN FLAG is the truest, ablest, and most fearless defender of the Union cause in this State. There is no other paper that can be compared with it in any respect. It is independent of cliques, cabals and factions.—NEVADA GAZETTE.

THE AMERICAN FLAG exceeds in variety and interest of its contents any paper west of the Rocky Mountains. It is justly entitled to the hearty friendship of all Union men. The Press generally have accorded it the honor due to their giant cotemporary.—ESMERELDA UNION.

A PRESENT WORTH HAVING.—Of course any present, however trivial, is worth acceptance, as its value is not intrinsic, but is measured by the unseen jewels of sentiment that imagination invests it with. Still, one does not object to a present having a high intrinsic value. Where a woman knows he can afford it, she will not think the less of a present from her husband for its having cost from forty to two hundred dollars. Not a bit of it. Now, we have in our mind's eye, just such a present as a true wife would like to receive from her worser half. Such of our own readers as would see it in its substantial form, may do so, by stepping into the sales-room of Messrs. Grover & Baker. In one of their sewing-machines, so perfect in their construction, and so easily adapted to every kind of work, we think that a genuine husband, who loves his wife, and would, therefore, lighten her heart by lightening her household cares, will find just such a present as he ought to feel bound to give her at this season of festivity and gratefulness. The prices of the machines, which are marvelously simple, and require no mechanical skill to manage, are from forty-five dollars upward. Let every sensible father of a family buy one, and in six months it will save its cost in "weariness and vexation of spirit" alone.—Philadelphia Mercury.

NEW ROAD.—Yesterday morning our efficient Road Commissioner, John Y. Thomas, assisted by a corps of engineers, commenced the work of laying out a county road connecting this place with Little York, Red Dog, You Bet and Nevada county generally. The necessity of this road has long been felt by our citizens, and we take much pleasure in congratulating them, on the prospect of its early completion. On easy, cheap and rapid communication, depends the prosperity of any community.

CAPT. C. C. HUNTLY passed through this place on Sunday last with two stage-loads of drugs, bound for Halena, Montana Territory. The Captain calls the point of destination (Halena) one thousand miles distant from Gold Hill, Nevada, and thinks he will be able to reach it by the 1st of May. He will establish a drug store at Helana and run his stages between that place and Diamond City. Success to him.

A GOOD CLEAN-UP.—The Pennsylvania Company cleaned up yesterday, says the Nevada Gazette after crushing about forty tons of rock, which yielded at the rate of sixty dollars per ton. Much of the rock crushed was taken while running a tunnel, and was considerably mixed with cab and granite. The mill will not be run during the present week, but will start up again next Monday, when the proprietors hope to keep it running steadily.

"Go from home to get news," is an adage we find verified by the following from the Nevada Transcript of the 14th inst.:

On Saturday morning last, Harriman, Clerk of the Supreme Court, and Aubury, Justice of the Peace, got into a political discussion at Dutch Flat, when the latter called the former a liar and they went at it in a la Heenan style. The fight lasted for a considerable time, drawing an immense crowd and some blood. One of the parties halloed "enough," when the exhibition was brought to a close.

ALMOST A FIRE.—The residence of the Rev. J. A. Johnson was yesterday discovered to be on fire, and for some time it was thought that all efforts to arrest its progress would prove of no avil. Happily, however, the flames were checked in time to prevent any considerable damage.

THE Steamer Golden Age arrived at San Francisco day before yesterday, bringing New York mails of the 20th of February and a large number of passengers, including 227 United States soldiers.

SUMMIT CITY has been incorporated under the name of Meadow Lake. Parties addressing letters to that place, would do well to make a note of it and govern themselves accordingly.

LUCAS, who was sentenced to seven years in the State Prison for the attempted murder of Collector Spinable at Forest City in 1862, has been pardoned.

THE majority of correspondents, says the Golden Era, writing from Montana, advise people to stay at home if they would escape hunger, cold and general disappointment.

THANKS to Hon. N. W. Winton, Senator from Storey county, Nevada, for valuable Pub. Docks.

A MICHIGANDER, who was arrested for stealing a goose, said he found the bird hissing at the American flag, and arrested it for treason.

IF YOU blood is corruption, disordered or vitiated, you are liable to be seized at any moment with a fit of sickness. It may appear in the form of pimples, blotches or sores, or it may suddenly prostrate you. One thing is certain: You cannot have health unless your blood is pure. To remove all impure matters from the blood, Adams' Blood Purifier is admitted to be the best preparation yet introduced to the public. It is a purely vegetable preparation, and will harm no one. Its effects are immediate and lasting. It purifies the blood, strengthens the nerves, produces a healthy action of the liver and kidneys, and restores the patient to perfect health and strength. ja3m

DR. J. F. GIBBON.—This celebrated physician has returned to San Francisco, after an absence of a year, during which time he has visited the prominent hospitals in the United States, England and France; and having carefully studied the different mode of treatment in all those establishments, he comes back with full knowledge as to a proper adaptation of them in the effecting of cures here. He has returned and resumed the practice of his profession at No. 617 Kearney street, where his old patients may find him, and those who are suffering from ills which his practice will allow him to cure. His card will be found in another column.

MEDICAL ADVICE.—DR. WM. K. DOHERTY'S Medical and Surgical Institute is becoming a sine quo non to the welfare of our State and health of our citizens; and his rapidly spreading reputation, although it may excite surprise, is but the signal of skill, and follows as the natural result of such a cause. We are personally acquainted with gentlemen who had suffered for years under chronic disease, and who had taken advantage of every available means that promised relief, but without success, until they called upon Dr. Doherty, who, in an incredibly short space of time, has given them entire relief. It is gratifying to announce this fact, because the Dr. is a gentleman who seeks, not by defamation of others, to establish his reputation or ruin of another's fame. The Doctor conducts his own Institute in such a manner must be gratifying to all his patients. He examines, advises, and recommends without charge, and the patient, after hearing his terms for treatment, can accept or reject at pleasure. In no case does the Doctor make a charge unless he effects a cure. This he is able to do, because he feels the confidence which long experience has given, and no doubt the consolation which appertain to that confidence. Persons afflicted with either acute or chronic disease, would do well to consult the Doctor; at all events, it can do no harm, as for consultation he asks no fee; nor does he insist on obedience to his advice unless the patient places himself under his care. His offices are on Sacramento street, opposite the Pacific Mail Steamship office.—News

CALIFORNIANS should test the merits of DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. While it is highly palatable as a beverage, it is unequalled as a tonic and invigorator. In the pursuit of fortune at the mines, many persons are exposed to the attacks of complaints of the digestive organs, and various kinds of fever. It is the very article that has so long been in demand in the mines. Its daily use will the tone of a deranged stomach, impart fresh vitality to the digestive functions, and cheer the spirits. Yet the Bitters is the safest of all stimulants. Let the miner who is exposed to hot and dry, wet and cold, be certain to obtain a supply of the genuine Hostetter Bitter, and he will find it a certain safeguard to health. Dec9-3m

HOPE FOR THE AFFLICTED.—In another part of this paper will be found the advertisement of the celebrated Institute established by Dr. J. C. YOUNG, in 1850. In this age of deceit and charlatanism it is a boon to the suffering to point out to them where they are sure of obtaining the wished for relief and cure. Under the care of the skillful Doctor the sick and troubled can divest themselves of their burdens of pain; lay aside their cross, and secure health and happiness. If you are sick or in trouble, do not hesitate. Read the advertisement and follow the advice. Do not forget the number or the manner of directing your letters. Consultation Office, 540, Washington street, San Francisco. Dec-3m

AT LEAST two-thirds of the Diseases with which the human family are afflicted, are brought on by the want of attention to the condition of the Blood. Whenever the blood becomes impure, no matter from what cause, the effects of such impurity are immediately felt, either in one way or another; and unless measures are at once taken to remove such impurities, the whole system becomes affected, and a long fit of sickness and sometimes death is the result. Dr. Samuel Adams, a well-known Chemist of San Francisco, has discovered certain herbs and roots, mostly of California growth, which he has combined with Sarsaparilla and Iodide of Potas, and succeeded in producing a Medicine that, while it is entirely harmless in every particular, will in short time completely eradicate from the Blood all impurities of whatever nature, and will restore the patient to perfect ROBUST HEALTH. The preparation is called "ADAMS' BLOOD PURIFIER," and is for sale at wholesale at the United States Drug Store, corner of Bush and Powell streets, San Francisco, and by Dr. D. W. Strong, Dutch Flat. 40

AN INTERESTING LETTER.

Very few persons, even among physicians, would have been willing upon any terms to have been in the condition of the writer of the following letter on the 14th of February last. I will anticipate somewhat his report of the facts by saying that on the 15th August, ult, he made me a visit, "the very picture of good health." Time, which tries and proves all things, has sufficiently tested this case, and shows that neither relapses nor collapses having followed, that the cure is perfect, and can be cited among the scores of similar cases the result of my improved mode of treating diseases without medicine.

G. M. BOURNE,
Water Cure Physician,
No. 10, Masonic Temple, Post street.
August 27, 1865.

SACRAMENTO, April 20, 1865.

DR. G. M. BOURNE—Dear Sir:—It is with pleasure and satisfaction that I now let you know of my good health. Looking back on what I have passed through, it seems as if I was lifted from the grave, and I think it my duty to acknowledge to you and the world the benefit I derived from water treatment as administered by you in your celebrated baths. It was in August, 1864, when disease developed itself with a severe cough. I then took medicines, getting worse, with chills, fevers, loss of strength, and was pronounced consumptive. This set me to thinking, and finally I determined to leave my business and go the Sandwich Islands, having been informed that I could not be cured here. I went to San Francisco, and while waiting for a ship called upon Dr. Bourne, who stated that a trip to the Islands would probably result disastrously, was wholly unnecessary, as I could be speedily cured at his establishment. I placed myself under his treatment, and in one week I was so much improved I thought I could risk returning home and to my duty as Engineer on the Central Pacific Railroad. The Doctor objected; but I thought I knew better, and returned to duty. In about two weeks my cough returned, and I kept getting worse. And contrary to Dr. Bourne's injunction never to take medicine again, committed that folly, and soon was so completely run down that I could scarcely walk; so, as a last resort, I concluded once more to try the Water Cure. I went to San Francisco—few of my friends expecting me to return; in fact, I thought my return doubtful, on arriving at Dr. Bourne's establishment (February 14, 1865.) I was not able to get into the bath without assistance, but in a few days I began to retain over again. I remained with him only six weeks, when I left a better man," without the aid of medicine. I have now been at work several weeks, and find that I am gaining every day, and at present bid fair to be stouter than ever before. Persons visiting the Doctor's establishment find it just what it should be, both in Ladies' and Gentlemen's Departments, and cannot say too much in praise of the Doctor's kind attention to his patients.

This letter I write for the benefit of all the afflicted, to be used as the Doctor decides, and should it be the means of directing any to his care and treatment who (as they assuredly will) find relief, I will be paid for my trouble.

JAMES CAMPBELL,
Engineer Central Pacific Railroad.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 22, 1865.

Advised by the undersigned, Mr. James Campbell, of the Central Pacific Railroad, (who was then in a most deplorable state of ill health,) placed himself under the care of Dr. Bourne, the Water Cure Physician. Some six months or more afterward he visited this city, when I accidentally met him at Dr. Bourne's establishment, and am happy to say, restored to the enjoyment of good health, and in fine spirits. JOHN SULLIVAN.

Dr. Bourne treats all diseases of the throat, chest, and lungs—which includes diptheria, bronchitis, incipient consumption, pleurisy, croup, etc.—with greatest success. Great relief is afforded in advanced stages of consumption. Rheumatism, paralysis, neuralgia, fever and ague, dropsy, etc., etc., are also cured quickly, pleasantly and economically. No medicine whatever.

Confirmation Strong, of an Interesting Letter.

SACRAMENTO, November 23, 1865.

DEAR DOCTOR:—I received your letter a few days since asking for my photograph, which I will attend to as soon as convenient. At present I am very busy on account of the stormy weather, being out at all times, both night and day, and am enjoying very good health, apprehending no danger if properly careful, as every one should be. I have read my letter in the CALL and other papers, and have been asked several times concerning it, as to whether it is correct, and I say I can vouch for its contents, and more if required, and so can a great many others who knew me at that time. I remain your friend,
JAMES CAMPBELL.
To Dr. BOURNE
San Francisco.

Dr. Bourne takes the liberty to publish the above, as many persons had prophested the relapse into his former condition, on returning to his duties, of the writer of "An Interesting Letter," whose statements concerning the cure of a well defined case of consumption have recently attracted so much attention to the Water Cure, as improved upon and practised by Dr. Bourne. This additional testimony must prove satisfactory to all reasonable minds. It should be remembered that Dr. Bourne uses no medicines whatever, and that his patients almost universally are those who have failed to receive relief from the medical practitioners; yet they are cured with great rapidity, and in a pleasant and agreeable manner.

INITIAL FACTS IN OUR HISTORY.—Our children are taught French, moral science and comic sections, and read history of Greek and Rome. How few of them, and how few men and women know anything of the history of their own country, except an outline of a few detached facts. How few under graduates know that Columbus undertook his first voyage in the expectation of finding the Great Kahn of Tartary; that he set sail on Friday, 1492—that unlucky and direful day—and on Friday, ten weeks after, he discovered land; that he supposed Cuba to be the continent; that he first reached the continent on the north coast of South America six years afterwards; that upon his fourth and last voyage he founded the first colony on the main land on the Isthmus of Panama; that twenty-one years after the first discovery, the Old World was astonished to find they had discovered a New World, when they reached the Pacific across the Isthmus; but that Cabot, an Englishman, reached the shores of New England a full year before Columbus touched the continent; that San Augustine, Florida, is the oldest town in America, being just 300 years old; that Santa Fe, New Mexico, is the second town in point of age; that twenty years later—1602—California was discovered and explored; that in 1603 a Frenchman, Sieur de Monts, made the first settlement north of San Augustine, at Annapolis, and twice attempted a settlement at Cape Cod, but was driven off by the natives; that Champlain founded in Quebec in 1608; that our coast from Pennsylvania to New Brunswick, was named Acadia, afterward New France; that Canada formerly comprehended our Vermont and New York; that Virginia was so named by Walter Raleigh, in honor of Queen Elizabeth, 1584, when he made his explanation of the North Carolina Coast; that the first English child born in America was Virginia Dare, daughter of Ananius; that the projected colony failed; that Jamestown was the first English town in America, began 1607, and named for James 1; that the want of wives in Virginia was so great that in 1621 a large number of young women, "of good character," were transported to the colony on speculation, and sold to the lonely settlers for a hundred and twenty to a hundred and fifty pounds of tobacco each; that New England was so named by John Smith, 1614; that at length a settlement was made, without a grant from the King's council, at New Plymouth, and sent its roots deep and wide into the scanty soil by a band of 102 passengers, Dec. 11, 1620, who came in a small craft whose name has been spoken from the occident to the orient, to-wit: the "May Flower."

NO INNOVATION.—A good old Dutchman in Pennsylvania was in the habit of sending his son "Hans" to mill every Saturday afternoon with a bag of grain. This was slung across the back of old Rawbones, a sorrel and sorry looking horse; and in order to make the bag maintain its balance, a large stone was put in one end of the bag, while the grain was pendant in the other. One day Hans had the task of getting the corn ready for the mill, and by chance forgetting the stone, as he seized the bag, the inclosed grain parted, and he found the load equally balanced on the back of Rawbones. Turning, he spied the stone, and examining the burden, discovered that the load went quite as well without it as with it. In joy at his great discovery, Hans yelled at the old man, who was in the corn house:

"Fader, fäder, come 'ere!"

"Vat you vant, Hans?" said the old father, coming out.

"Look here fader. I've kot ter corn palanced in ter pag mitout ter shtone in one ent!"

The old gentleman looked at Han's strange innovation, and in a voice choked with wrath at the presumption of the youth, said:

"Dake it off! dake it off, and put dat shtone in te pag, like it vas pefore! Your grandfader went to mill mit a shtone in ter pag ter palance it, and your old fader too, an' now you goes and sets yonrself up as you knows more dan both of dem! I whips you. Hans, dake it off, and but ter shtone in ter pag!"

Hans did as directed, and with a monstrous pebble in one end of the bag, and the grain in the other, old Rawbones went on his journey, and the world moved on.

TELL YOUR MOTHER.—I wonder how many girls tell their mother everything? Not those "young ladies" who, going to and from school, smile, bow and exchange notes and cartes de visite with young men who make fun of you and your pictures, speaking in a way that would make your cheeks burn with shame, if you heard it. All this, most incredulous and romantic young ladies, they will do, although they gaze at your fresh young faces admiringly, and send or give you charming verses or boquets. No matter "what other girls may do," don't you do it. School girl flirtations may end disastrously as many a foolish and wretched young girl could tell you. Your yearnings for some one to love is a great need of any woman's heart. But there is a time for everything. Don't let the bloom and freshness of your heart be brushed off in silly flirtations. Render yourself truly intelligent. And above all, tell your mother everything. "Fun," in your dictionary would be indiscretion in her's. It would do no harm to look and see. Never be ashamed to tell her, who should be your best friend and confidant, all you think and feel. It is very strange, that so many young girls will tell every person before "mother" that which is most important she should know. It is very sad that indifferent persons should know more about her fair young daughters than she herself.—Fanny Fern.

STATE'S EVIDENCE.—A good story is told of George White, a notorious thief in Winchester county. He was once arrested for horse-stealing, when it was supposed that he was connected with an extensive gang, which was levying contribution upon all the stables around about. Many inducements were held out to White to reveal the names of his associates, but he maintained a dogged silence. An assurance from the Court was at last obtained that he should be discharged, upon which he made oath to reveal all he knew of his accomplices. The jury were accordingly suffered to bring in a verdict of "not guilty," when he was called upon for the promised revelations. "I shall be faithful to my word," said he; "understand, then, that the devil is the only accomplice I ever had—we have been a great while in partnership—you have acquitted me, and you can hang him if you can catch him.

RICH WIDOW.—Queen Victoria, says the London correspondent of the New York Times, is far richer than the late King Leopold, or than is probably any sovereign in Europe. She receives a large sum, spends little, gives less, has all her expenses paid, and her property is accumulating to an enormous amount. All her children are provided for by the State, and if she lives forty years longer, as she well may, coming of a long lived family, she will die worth more millions than any one but a Rothschild could realize

FREDRIKA BREMER, the celebrated Swedish novelist, in one of her last artices, said "the assassination of Lincoln opened the eyes of the people of Europe to the serpent nature of the Rebellion, and in the shock and shudder electrically felt from this serpent sting, a pedestal rose under the feet of the victim, raising him and the cause for which he died so that he became visible to all nations."

FOR one man who sincerely pities our misfortunes, there are a thousand who sincerely hate our success.

IMPORTANT

MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

ELECTRICITY AS A CURATIVE AGENT

When it was promulgated by the Directors of the Electropathic Institute that disease could be entirely eradicated from the system without the use of poisonous drugs the thoughtless and those who do not look deeply into cause and effect scouted the assertion as chimerical, and wrote articles replete with sophistry, claiming that only through the digestive system could the blood be purged of the poisons which constitute disease; a great cry went up from those interested in the continued supremacy of the old system of one poison to cure another. All of the empirics joined in the chorus, and in their ignorance laughed at the new system, circulating base stories of its ill success, and quoting imaginary cases as proofs. Time has demonstrated their dishonesty. After five years of uninterrupted success the Electropathetic system is the leading idea in medical jurisprudence. While by the old system, physicians are contented to cure one in every five cases, there were those who were diving deep into the science of the curative art; among these were the Electropathists; finally, it was discovered that the failure in most of the cases of organic diseases, was entirely due to the machine. Taking this view of the case, Dr. J. H. Josselyn, after years of experiment, has perfected an Electropathic Instrument, which will cure any disease which flesh is heir to, always to be understood that the case is not so far advanced as to show a destruction of the vital tissue. From early morn until late at night, this instrument is employed, imparting health and vigor to all who are so fortunate as to obtain its services. We do not claim that the use of medicines may not be more advantageous in some cases, but, that in connection with machines, it will perform a cure much sooner than without, and also that diseases hitherto deemed incurable, can be cured by this system, but the Directors desire to take this opportunity to inform invalids that the Resident Physician is a regular graduate and has had large experience in the treatment of disease, both with and without the assistance of electricity; he has also discovered several "electric" Vegetable remedies that will cure almost any nameable disease, which he will send with full instructions for use, to any part of the Pacific coast upon a receipt of a complete description of the disease with which the applicant may be afflicted, and will warrant a complete and perfect cure in all cases where the medicines are used according to directions and more especially in all cases of female troubles, where great care and caution are necessary to a favorable result. Disease (which by the old system) took months, and even years to cure, are now cured in a few days or weeks. The cost, too, is not so great as by the old system, besides the saving of time. Connected with this system are the renowned than which there is no more powerful auxiliary in the world for the radical cure of disease. There is no institute in the State where the electropathic system is practiced, except at the

Electropathic Institute,

645 Washington street.

This Institute was established to, if possible prevent the unwary from falling into those dens of robbery (yclept quack doctors' traps,) and hereafter the scientific originators of this Institute will not be to blame if the afflicted are robbed of their money, and injured in constitution. There is another view of the affair. The rising generation should be reared with strong constitutions, and the Directors wish to arouse their guardians to a proper sense of their duties in the premises, if possible to prevent them from stuffing their young charges with deleterious drugs, with a chance of entailing upon the tender constitution just forming, a complication of evils, a thousand times worse than death.

It would be consuming space, to no purpose, to enumerate the diseases to which this system is applicable, suffice it to say, that there is no disease, within the catalogue of human ills but what can be cured at the Electropathic Institute. We have instructed the Resident Physician to warrant a perfect and permanent cure, or ask no pay for services, when in his judgement it is within the bounds of cure.

CAUTION.

Persons seeking the Electropathic Institute, should be careful to remember the name and number.

PRIVATE MEDICAL AID.

QUICK CURES AND MODERATE CHARGES.

DR. W. K. DOHERTY'S

Private Medical and Surgical Institute,

Sacramento Street, below Montgomery, opposite the Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office. Private entrance on Leidesdorff street, San Francisco.

Established expressly to afford the afflicted sound and Scientific Medical Aid, in the treatment and cure of all Private and Chronic Diseases, cases of secrecy and all Sexual Diseases.

TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. W. K. DOHERTY returns his sincere thanks to his numerous patients for their patronage, and would take this opportunity to remind them that he continues to consult at his Institute for the cure of chronic diseases of the Lungs, Liver, Kidneys, Digestive and Genito-Urinary Organs, and all private diseases, viz: Syphilis in all its forms and stages, Seminal Weakness, and all the horrid consequences of self-abuse, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Nocturnal and Diurnal emissions, Sexual Disability, Diseases of the Back and Loins, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, etc., etc., and he hopes that his long experience and successful practice will continue to ensure him a share of public patronage. By the practice of many years in Europe and the United States, he is enabled to apply the most efficient and successful remedies against diseases of all kinds. He uses no mercury, charges moderate, treats his patients in a correct and honorable way, and has references from men of known respectability and high standing in society. All parties consulting him by letter or otherwise, will receive the best and gentlest treatment, and implicit secrecy.

DR. DOHERTY would call attention to the following certificates from two of his patients, who, having fully recovered their health, desire to make known their remedial agent. It will be seen their statements are fully authenticated by a Notary Public.

The welfare of society imperiously demand their publicity, and they are given more to warn the unwary than to sound the praise of a Physician, of whom hundreds of like cases can be cited during a practice of more than fifteen years.

I arrived in this city from the East about one year ago, and was then suffering from an old case of Gleet, complicated with Stricture. Being a stranger in this city, and believing those Doctors who gave such positive assurances of success were necessarily the best, (some of whom have a large number of titles,) I placed myself in their charge and continued under their treatment until I had lost nearly all hope and a considerable sum of money.

I wish to say now that you are the sixth Doctor I have employed, and the only one that has ever done me any service. My Gleet is wholly cured, the Stricture is all removed, and my general health is beter than it has been for years.

In conclusion, I would say to the many unfortunates who require medical advice, if you have any doubt as to whom you may employ, ask Dr. Doherty for my address and call and see me. (I keep store in this city.) My experience may save you many dollars.

I would also add that in the early stage of my disease, I used a large amount of the preparations advertised as an infallible cure for Gonorrhœa, Gleet, etc., but never derived any benefit from them.

I am, Doctor, very truly yours, L—— H——.

San Francisco, June 16, 1864.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 21tt day of June, A. D. 1864.

Seminal Weakness—A Sworn-to Certificate of a most Remarkable Cure of Spermatorrhœa.

A desire to benefit humanity, and a feeling of gratitude to Dr. W. K. Doherty, alone induces me to make this statement. For many years I have been afflicted with that fearful disease known as "Spermatorrhœa," or Seminal Weakness, the result of self-abuse, but till 1855 experienced but little trouble or inconvenience. In that year however, I had Seminal Weakness to an alarming extent, which was soon followed by the most alarming symptons as weakness of the back and limbs, pain in the head, dimness of vision, nervousness and general debility. My mind, too, was afflicted to such an extent as to seriously impair my memory; my ideas were confused and spirits depressed. I was averse to society, had evil forebodings and self-distrust, and was entirely unfitted for any of the duties of life. From 1855 to the summer of 1863, I employed the very best medical talent I could find, and spent several hundred dollars, but in no instance obtained more than temporary relief. I had about concluded there was no relief for me in this world, but seeing Dr. Doherty's advertisement, I thought I would call and see him, as he charged nothing for consultation. I had an interview with Dr. Doherty at his office, in Sacramento street, and his fee for treatment was so reasonable I determind to try him, though I did not expect much benefit from his treatment. On the 5th of December last I placed myself under his care; in one week I found myself very much improved, and, now, after five weeks' treatment, I feel myself thoroughly cured of all my troubles and in the enjoyment of the best health. Hoping that my experience may be of benefit to others similarly afflicted, I subscribe myself

To Females.

When a female is in trouble, or afflicted with disease as weakness of the back and limbs, pain in the head, dimness of sight, loss of muscular power, palpitation of the heart, irritability, nervousness, extreme urinary difficulties, derangement of digestive functions, general debility, vaginitis, all diseases of the womb, hysteria, sterility, and all other diseases peculiar to females, they should go or write at once to the celebrated female doctor, W. K. Doherty, at his Medical Institute, and consult him about their troubles and disease. The Doctor is effecting more cures than any other physician in the State of California. Let no false delicacy prevent you, but apply immediately and save yourself from painful sufferings and premature death. All Married Ladies whose delicate health or other circumstances prevent an increase in their families should write or call at Dr. W. K. Doherty's Medical Institute, and they will receive every possible relief and help. The Doctor's offices are so arranged that he can be consulted without fear of observation.

To Correspondents.

Patients residing in any part of the State, however distant, who may desire the opinion and advice of Dr. Doherty on their respective cases, and who think proper to submit a written statement of such, in preference to holding a personal interview, are respectfully assured that their communications will be held most sacred. Dr. Doherty takes this opportunity of observing, that all letters are only opened and replied to by himself, and the latter as promptly as possible.

If the case be fully and candidly described, personal communication will be superseded, as instructions for diet, regimen, and the general treatment of the case (including the remedies, if any), will be forwarded without delay, and in such a manner as to convey no purport of the letter or parcel so transmitted.

PRIVATE MEDICAL INSTITUTE

Established by
DR. J. C. YOUNG, IN 1850.
FOR THE CURE OF ALL PRIVATE DISEASES AND ALL FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

CONSULTING OFFICE,
540 WASHINGTON STREET.
SAN FRANCISCO, ... CALIFORNIA
NO CURE, NO PAY.

Consultation by letter, or otherwise, FREE. For direction of letters, see below.

THIS CELEBRATED INSTITUTE

has enjoyed on this coast an uninterrupted success of fourteen years, and has become one of the renowned Hospitals of the age. What the celebrated Lock Hospital is to London, and the no less renowned establishment of Ricord is to Paris, this Institute has become to the Pacific coast. The thousands annually received and cured place it in point of number of patients among the very first of the world, and the success of its treatment ranks it second to none.

PRIVATE DISEASES IN MALE and IRREGULARITIES IN FEMALES are the great destroyers of health They insidiously attack the system and gradually undermine and destroy it; they drive the bloom from the cheek, the lustre from the eye, the strength from the frame; they give to the world puny and diseased offspring, and poison, through successive generations the race of man. The mark can be seen in Scrofula, Consumption, Cripples, the Idiotic, the Paralytic, the Insane, etc.

There is no more terrible scourge to the human race than those diseases arising from the contamination of Venerial Poison. The basest forms, by retreating to the blood, hold over the afflicted one, the destruction that is liable at any moment to fall and blight—to utterly destroy—all earthly hopes.

MERCURY, recognized as the most fatal medical enemy to man, combining with the Venereal, doubles in dangers. Those who have been treated with that pernicious mineral poison are not cured; the disease has only assumed a new form.

Do not be Satisfied with Partial Cures that leave the poison to crawl through the system, eating its way into the tissues and organs beneath the apparently smooth surface, to burst out in the future with a virulence that will baffle the effects of medicine. WHEN PERFECT CURES can be obtained by consulting a physician whom long practice, and thorough investigation into the causes of DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS enables to determine at once the nature of the disease.

In all cases entrusted to the Doctor's care, PERFECT SPEEDY and PERMANENT.

Cures are always Guaranteed.

In syphilis and its adjuncts; Gonorrhœa and its accompanying diseases; and all diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, and prostrate; Seminal Weakness; Diseases of the Heart and Lungs; Dyspepsia; Indigestion, Dyspepsy; Incipient consumption, and all diseases of the urinary organs, in either sex, cure always warranted, NO PAY REQUIRED, at the

Private Medical Institute,

SEMINAL WEAKNESS OR SPERMATORRHOEA.

The young man who experiences that growing weakness in his muscular and mental organization should stop to consider whence it arises. He will find in the weakness of the back, trembling of the limbs, disordered digestion unaccountable falling of the powers of the mind, distaste for society, dread of impending trouble, forebodings of evil, sleeplessness, troubled and lascivious dreams, accompanied by growing deafness, loss of muscular power, and numerous other symptoms of disorganization, the positive traces of that most terrible and destructive of all diseases Seminal Weakness—wasting away his powers, destroying his hope of life and manhood, and dragging him along the broken path of his existence towards a premature and loathsome grave. To him who finds his life dribbling out in the discharge of the vital principle of existence in nocturnal and diurnal emissions, the mere cessation of its appearance brings no assurance of relief.

Marriage, that holy office, the safeguard and hope of manhood, brings to such a one no hope of cure, but adds to his misery in the knowledge that he one who looks to him for so much of her happiness, is a victim to his evil, and an innocent companion of his punishment. He adds to his misery and disorder until hope leaves him. There is no rescue except in proper and skillful treatment. Consult then, at once, a physician whom long practice and careful research has made thoroughly conversant with every phase of the disease. Those who have become the victims of solitary vices, that dreadful, fascinating and destructive habit, which fills thousands of sick-rooms with paralytics and consumptives, and hundreds of untimely graves with its misguided victims, should consult without a moment's delay, one who will sympathize with their sufferings. To such the Doctor would especially address himself, giving to each and all assurance of a PERFECT and PERMANENT CURE, without hindrance to business, change of diet, or fear of exposure.

Do not forget the address. See below.

Important to Females.

When a female is in trouble or afflicted with disease and requires medical or surgical assistance, the enquiry should be, Where is there a physician who is fully competent to administer relief, and whose respectable standing in society recommends him to the confidence of the community? The Doctor understanding how imperatively necessary these requirements are, feels called upon to interpose, and by the attention of the afflicted to the fact that he has been a Professor of Obstetrics and Female Diseases for twenty years, and is fully qualified to administer in all cases, both medically and surgically, not in a superficial manner, but in as thorough a manner as years of study and practice—both in hospitals and private families—can make, to save them from the hands of the unqualified, unscrupulous and designing. Therefore families can rely upon him as upon a father. All in affliction can find in him one who will feel and sympathize with and befriend them in trouble—one in whose secrecy the utmost confidence can be placed. Consultation by letter or otherwise, FREE. See address below.

THE CELEBRATED FEMALE REMEDIES, compounded from the private prescription of Dr. Young, have now obtained a most extended popularity, and are correctly viewed to be the safest and surest remedies for the complaints for which they are applied. The constantly accruing testimonials of their efficacy declare them to be pre-eminently superior in their action. No lady should be without these Renovating Agents. None genuine unless procured at this office.

Sent by Mail or Express, to any part of the State. The GREAT FEMALE MEDICINE and PREVENTIVE POWDERS for MARRIED LADIES. New, Safe and Infallible, lasting from four to six months. Price, $10. Patients residing in any part of the State, however distant, who may desire medical advice on their respective cases, and who think proper to submit a written statement of such in preference to holding a personal interview, are assured that their communications will be held most sacred.
